

THE AMERICAN CIVIL WAR YEARS

List Price: $25.99

Book is available at
<https://www.createspace.com/4644614>

The Michigan Experience (The Reenactors' Telling)

Authored by Donna L. Ullrich

Designed by Shekinah Shazaam

Photographs by Wayne Dabney, Leon C. Collins

Commentaries by John Gibney

Introduction by Michael J. Thorp

Edited by Donna Ullrich

Consultant editor Rodney W. Brown, Leon C. Collins

Edition: 1

This beautiful photo book features the reenactors of the American Civil War era as their actions tell the stories of the going off to war, camp life, battles and surrender. It also covers the politics and the society of the time. "American Civil War Years," focuses on Michigan's role in the Civil War and its many contributions to the war effort. It highlights the roles of women both in battle and in society at the time. It also highlights African-Americans and Native Americans who fought for the Union cause along with the rest of Michigan's 90,000 soldiers. In addition, the book offers a bounty of resources about Michigan's Civil War history to encourage a variety of learning activities and day trips for families and classrooms alike.

Table of Contents

Foreword: "Why Reenact?" by John Gibney, 4

Acknowledgements, 6

Introduction: "Thank God for Michigan" by Michael J. Thorp, 10

Dedications, 16

The Reenactors' Telling, 19

They Came, 22

Camp Life, 34

The Generals, 54

Battles, 58

102nd USCT, 84

Michigan 5th Regimental Band, 90

Sarah Edmonds, 92

Company K Sharpshooters, 94

George Sidman, 96

The Politicians, 98

Civilian Life, 102

Reenactment Community, 112

iMichigan Productions Embedded, 118

Epilogue: Photographs Telling Stories, 124

For More Information, 126

References, 134