

NEW MICHIGAN CIVIL WAR SESQUICENTENNIAL PUBLICATION

Glory, Valor & Sacrifice: Michigan Sites Significant to the Civil War identifies the many sites significant to this pivotal period in American history. It pays homage to the local people of this era who bravely fought and those who died to protect and preserve the Union. It honors those Americans who courageously raised their voices to challenge oppressive ideology and laws and worked tirelessly to insure the self-evident truths – “that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness” – set forth by our founders in the Declaration of Independence were extended to all.

The book is available online at hometownhistorytours.com for $20 plus $5 tax/shipping and handling, or for $20 at the Michigan Historical Museum gift shop, Grosse Ile Historical Museum, Monroe County Historical Museum, Book Nook (Monroe), and Monroe Public Library System (Ellis Library & Bedford Branch)
