

Civil War Sesquicentennial – Michigan’s Role in the Civil War
Grand Opening of Michigan Historical Center Museum Civil War Exhibit:
Plowshares into Swords
April 12, 2011

Top Picture – L-R: Dick Williams (7th Michigan & Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War), Rodney Stokes – Michigan Department of Natural Resources Director, Don Everett (7th Michigan), Keith Harrison (7th Michigan, Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War, Military Order of the Loyal Legion of the United States & Michigan Civil War Sesquicentennial History Partners’ Chair).

Bottom Picture - Michigan Historical Museum exhibit designer Susan Cooper, Michigan Historical Center Director Sandra Clark and Michigan Department of Natural Resources director Rodney Stokes.

Civil War Sesquicentennial – Michigan’s Role in the Civil War
Grand Opening of Michigan Historical Center Museum Civil War Exhibit:
Plowshares into Swords
April 12, 2011

Top Picture - 2006 Mrs. Michigan United States Kristina Austin Scarcelli
Bottom Picture – Dick Williams (7th Michigan & Sons of Union Veterans of the Civil War), Sandra Clark – Michigan Historical Center Director, and Don Everett (7th Michigan).

Civil War Sesquicentennial – Michigan's Role in the Civil War
Grand Opening of Michigan Historical Center Museum Civil War Exhibit:
Plowshares into Swords
April 12, 2011

Top Picture – Museum Exhibit Ribbon Cutting Ceremony. L - R: Dick Williams, 2006 Mrs. Kristina Austin Scarcelli, Susan Cooper, Keith Harrison, and Michigan Historical Commission member Tom Truscott.